

NORTH KAMLOOPS LIBRARY TO UNDERGO RENOVATION

The North Kamloops Library will be temporarily closed for renovation from Friday, January 4 to Sunday, January 13. It will re-open at 10:00 am on Monday, January 14.

The short-term closure will see North Kamloops Library receive a new centralized welcome desk, enhanced security, and an emphasis on self-service for patrons.

“Our main objectives are to enhance our customer service, and to provide a welcoming environment for all users” said Judy Moore, Chief Librarian of Thompson-Nicola Regional Library (TNRL). “Our self-check machines are simple to use and allow our staff to focus more time on helping patrons with library materials or developing new, innovative programs to serve our diverse communities.”

While the North Kamloops Library is closed, loan periods will be extended and patrons are encouraged to keep their library materials at home.

The TNRL apologizes in advance for any inconvenience this temporary closure may cause. Our Kamloops Library on Victoria Street is open seven days a week, or you can visit www.tnrl.ca to search our wide collection of resources and services.
